

YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY OF BOYS STATE

LESLIE G. REED
Governor, 1956

More than 300 boys came to Jackson's Mill on June 6, 1936, for the first Boys State. The camp was more or less in the nature of an experiment but it turned out remarkably well. The highlight of the State was the work of the Legislature. Among the outstanding speakers on the program were Governor H. Guy Kump, Col. W. H. Waldron, Attorney-General H. A. "Rocky" Holt and C. M. "Chuck" Wilson. William G. Stathers of Clarksburg, was department commander of the American Legion and president of Boys State. Leslie G. Reed of Clarksburg won the Governor post by a 5 to 1 majority over Orin Conway of Sistersville.

RICHARD TURNER
Governor, 1942

Dick Turner of Huntington, member of the Federalist party, was elected Governor of the first wartime Boys State, attended by more than 400 citizens. Turner defeated Ryland Miller of Charleston, by five votes.

Featured speakers included: Governor M. M. Neely, Senator Harley M. Kilgore, R. Worth Shumaker, William G. Stathers, Judge Fred L. Fox, Dean C. R. Orten of West Virginia University.

One unpleasant feature of 1942 Boys State was the unusually rainy weather. Heavy showers fell every day, playing havoc with the various cottages.

Stuart Thayer of Charleston, secretary of Boys State won the Posing Memorial Award—a baby bond, for being the outstanding citizen of 1942.

The Board of Directors, in recognition of the war years, cancelled Boys State for the years 1943 and 1945.

PAUL CRONIN
Governor, 1937

A total of 413 boys, the largest number in history, crowded Jackson's Mill for the second Boys State. Paul Cronin of Weirton, was elected governor over Bud Spelsburg, of Clarksburg, by a margin of five votes.

A convention adopted a Boys State constitution and a general election ratified the document. An extensive court system was set up to provide more attraction and instruction for the citizens.

Among the distinguished visitors were Governor Holt, Judge Jo N. Kenna, president of the state supreme court of appeals, Col. W. H. Waldron and Homer Challaux. Charles Booth of Huntington was commander of the Legion and president of Boys State.

WILLIAM G. MILLER
Governor, 1938

Automatic voting machines and a statewide broadcast featured the third Boys State. William Miller of Charleston, was chosen governor and received the oath of office from Judge Haymond Maxwell of the state supreme court. The ceremonies were broadcast over the statewide West Virginia network.

Automatic voting machines were installed for the first time and all citizens used them in both the primary and general elections.

For the first time citizenship in Boys State was limited to those who were juniors or seniors in high school. There were 337 in attendance.

"Men of Tomorrow," the official song of the Mountaineer Boys State, was written by Roy Lee Harmon, poet laureate of West Virginia, with music by Margaret Nicely, was sung for the first time.

More than 380 high school youths came to the 1939 Boys State and elected Rodney Wilford of Huntington, governor. The election contest was between the east and the south for the first time in the four-year history of the state.

State police were given more intensive training, the courts were better equipped, voting machines were used again and a home rule amendment was adopted.

A state-wide broadcast over West Virginia Network carried the inaugural ceremonies of Governor Wilford. The oath was administered by Judge Fred L. Fox, president of the state supreme court.

Governor Homer A. Holt flew to the Camp from Charleston to take part in the inaugural ceremonies.

RODNEY WOLFORD
Governor, 1939JAMES H. FRESH
Governor, 1940

The gubernatorial contest at this state was centered in Northern West Virginia, with James Fresh of Clarksburg and Robert Lee of Fairmont the two candidates. Fresh won the election with a majority of 91 votes.

Melvin Burka of Clarksburg, secretary of state, refused to sign the commission of Gordon Shingleton, Fresh's appointee as commissioner of health, upon the grounds that Shingleton was not qualified for the office. The case was carried to the supreme court of appeals which handed down a unanimous decision forcing Burka to sign the commission.

Governor Fresh appointed four men as honorary colonels on his staff. They included T. F. Williams, department commander of the Legion; Raymond J. Kelly, national Legion commander; Joseph R. Curl, Boys State Counselor in charge of the courts; and John Newcome, for four years a county counselor in camp.

DAVID HERMANSDORFF
Governor, 1946

Allen Simmons of Wheeling, became the second chief counselor in the history of Boys State when he succeeded R. Worth Shumaker, of Buckhannon. Mr. Shumaker resigned to accept a post with the American Legion in Indianapolis.

In the primary election Monday, Jack Lee and Bill Teel were chosen to head the Nationalist and Federalist tickets. Lee won the general election Tuesday with a majority of only five votes.

Governor James Fresh of Clarksburg, presided at the assembly until Governor Lee was sworn in by Judge Jo N. Kenna, President of the Supreme Court of Appeals.

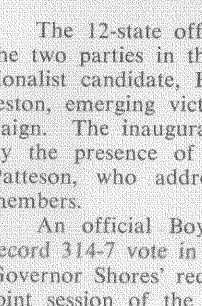

A draft age poll was conducted by the Mountaineer to find the opinion of the State on lowering of the draft age limit to 18 years. A seven-vote margin gave those in favor of lowering the age the victory.

The attendance for the 1941 State was 404.

AN ANCIENT PROVERB FOR GUIDANCE

He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not—he is foolish, shun him;
He who knows not, and knows that he knows not—he is unlearned, teach him;
He who knows, and knows not that he knows—he is asleep, awaken him;
He who knows, and knows that he knows—he is wise, follow him.

Boys State Senate—1957

JACK LEE
Governor, 1941TED RAKE
Governor, 1950

Ted Rake, Nationalist, became the first Parkersburg Boys State Governor in an election that almost swamped the Federalist party which salvaged only the office of State Auditor and one membership on the Supreme Court. With control of the House and Senate, a constitutional amendment was submitted proposing to abolish the method of setting "tie" contests by lot. The amendment was approved by a large majority. Donald R. Wilson, Past Department Commander inspired the State with his address depicting the dangers of subversive groups in America.

A Boys State chief humming by a Legislature and a Governor of different political parties, a campaign reminiscent of early days featuring a parade placards and banners; lusty singing of "Men of Tomorrow," the official Boys State song and the new and popular "sound-off" chant; a new roll-call stunt in assembly; the selection of county representatives for "Outstanding Citizenship" awards; and the Legislature's defeat of the administration bill to establish an Inaugural Ball: these were the ingredients of the 14th Mountaineer Boys State. The Federalists elected the Governor but the Nationalists captured four of the remaining six posts on the Board of Public Works, won a 3-2 majority on the Supreme Court and control of both houses of the Legislature.

ROBERT MORGAN
Governor, 1921JIM ST. CLAIR
Governor, 1952

Continuing the dominance of the Federalists by majorities in the Senate and House of Delegates, Governor St. Clair's regime, however, ran into difficulty when the Nationalists outmaneuvered his party and organized the House of Delegates. In spite of this disadvantage, the Governor won support for his budget bill, secured passage of a pest control bill, legislation to authorize the extension of the session to 10 days, and for the paving of the outdoor athletic courts at Jackson's Mill. Governor St. Clair was chosen to represent West Virginia at Boys Nation in Washington during July.

The 1953 Boys State election produced a Nationalist governor but left the state administration greatly divided.

Russell A. "Rat" Thom, Jr., of Charleston defeated Glenn "Whitey" Sedam of Nutter Fort but lost the Board of Public Works 4-3 to the Federalists. The Legislature was badly divided with a 12-12 tie in the Senate and the Federalists a 26-22 margin in the House. The Governor, however, had a 4-1 majority on the Supreme Court.

The legislature passed one of its most far-reaching bills this year when it authorized Governor Thom to help establish a Youth Safety Driving Council which would encompass every student in every high school in the state. The legislature set up a North-South-East-West turnpike commission and voted to allow 18-year-olds to vote.

During this year Governor Lucas discovered the difficulties attendant upon organization of a Legislature controlled by the opposition party. Partisanship delayed the passage of the budget bill and caused a call for an extraordinary session for this purpose although the regular legislation providing for the shift of the soft drink tax to the state's liquor monopoly and the continuation of the Youth Safety Council's throughout the state were passed by safe margins. When the extraordinary session failed to convene, a test case was prepared and presented to the Supreme Court restraining an increase in salary for the Commissioner of Agriculture. Voting machines were used for the official election for the first time since 1939.

Governor Dudding's term began with serious difficulties because of a divided House and Senate, but these were soon won over by the serious approach to major legislation on the part of the Governor and Board of Public Works.

The use of voting machines facilitated the counting of results from a complicated ballot. A series of excellent evening programs by Governor Marland, Justice Chancery Browning, Rev. Walter Overstreet, and West Point Cadet Gene Wilson provided instruction, guidance, and entertainment. For the first time in the history of the State, the West Virginia Legislature set aside a joint session during January, 1956, for an address by Governor Dudding and the West Virginia Board of Public Works gave the afternoon to consultation and study of their officers to their counterparts from Boys State.

The pattern of Boys State politics was repeated this year as the governorship was won by a party which failed to provide him with a majority in the Legislature. Governor John Frye was designated to attend Boys Nation in Washington, from which he emerged as the President . . . an outstanding honor and distinction for himself and the State. W. R. Fugitt observed his connection with Boys State since 1942 . . . and his 12 years as Chief Counselor. Plans were made to celebrate the 20th annual session of Boys State next year by a program for all Past Governors.

The Governor's recommendation for adoption of a Universal Military Training program was approved by the Legislature, the act including provisions for UMT graduates to become appointees to West Point and Annapolis to replace the Officer Reserve Corps units and to provide a Bill of Rights for those men participating in the UMT program.

Past Governors Freeze and Daugherty returned with Counseling, continuing the procedure of having the retiring Governor present for the duration of the State.

David Hermansdorff, the Federalist candidate for Governor was swept into office in the election which carried all Federalists into the State office except the Commissioner of Agriculture and two members of the State Supreme Court.

JACKSON'S MILL—HOME OF BOYS STATE

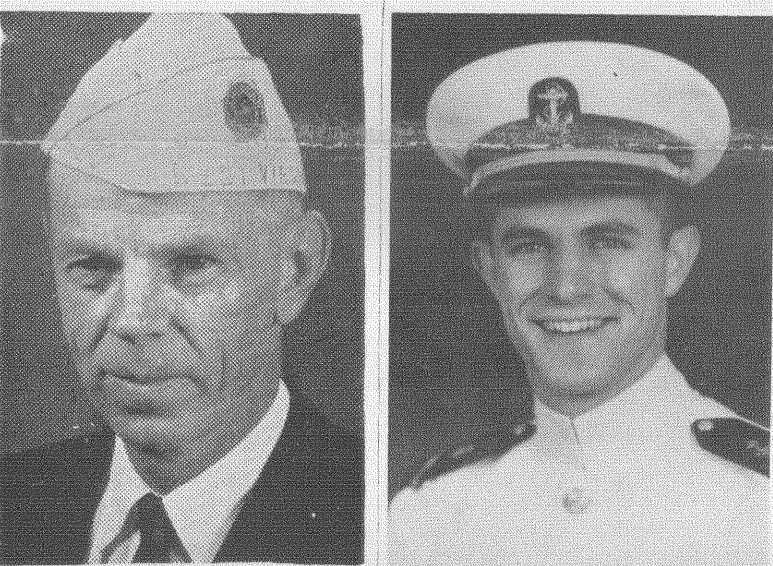

Nestled in the most beautiful hills of West Virginia is Jackson's Mill which tri-umphantly offers every comfort and recreational facility of a modern camp. The native stone Mt. Vernon dining hall, the dozen or more spacious and healthful county cottages, a large assembly hall and other buildings, an outdoor swimming pool, tennis court, fields for all sports and other facilities, make Jackson's Mill an ideal home for the American Legion Mountaineer Boys State.

Assembly Programs Chart Course Of Events

Opening the 20th session of the American Legion Mountaineer Boys State at 1:00 P. M. Sunday, June 2, 1957, the proficiency of the Counselors matched that of previous years by completing the enrollment of the citizens, the assignment to county, city and political party, distribution of supplies including a Manual of Government, the West Virginia Blue Book, a Boys State T-Shirt as formal dress for the week, and the inspection by the medical officer to determine that each boy was physically able to participate and was free of communicable diseases, before 4:00 P. M. at Hardman, American Legion of West Virginia opened the meeting with a welcome on behalf of the members of the many Posts throughout the state and expressed thanks to the organizations and school personnel who accepted the responsibility for selection and certifying the representatives from each community.

Stressing the voluntary contribution of time and effort by the Counselors, Commander Hardman urged the citizens to reward the counselors and their sponsors by exemplifying the teaching of citizenship in his home high school and community.

Commander E. D. Hardman

which time the citizens gathered at the Century of Progress Building for the first Assembly. Until the closing of the session the following Saturday morning, each one is to find himself engaged in actual governmental experiences, in study of political procedures, in participation with the band, in athletics or in the exchange of fellowship with his fellows.

Sunday Afternoon

The opening session of the week is reserved for introduction of the citizens to the staff of counselors, to the various sponsors of the program, to the divisions of the work and to specific steps in the organization of political parties.

Department Commander E. D.

Sunday Night — 7:30 P. M.

This assembly was given exclusively to instruction in the formation of political parties, the election and functions of a party executive committee, a senatorial committee and a judicial circuit committee. Each step was described in detail by Past Commander E. Gaujot Bias. After further introduction of counselors assigned to political parties, answering questions on procedure, the county counselors and the citizens went to their respective cottages. By 10:30 P. M. the sponsors of the Nationalist and Federalist parties were in session with the state executive committees.

MONDAY:—Feeling that we had been in camp a week, the 1st citizen assembly was opened by our incumbent Governor John Frye. Having had a full day of party caucuses, political campaigning at the primary level, the response to exhortations of the party managers produced a deafening roar as first one and then the other parties tried to outshout and maneuver the other. After some 30 minutes of continued bedlam, the boys settled down to listen to the description of President Frye's experiences at Boys Nation last July.

TUESDAY:—For the first time the State was permitted to view the "Annapolis Story," a film showing the training of a Midshipman at the Naval Academy. The story was brought close to the boys because it was presented by an alumnus of Boys State — Don Thompson, Session of 1954.

The many questions asked about the class work, the physical requirements, and the method of securing admission indicated a solid interest in the Academy.

WEDNESDAY:—Traditionally Wednesday is reserved for the inauguration of the newly elected officials of the State . . . Honorable Chancery Browning, member, Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia administered the oath of office to the Governor, the members of the Board of Public Works and the Boys State Supreme Court of Appeals . . .

Chief Counselor W. R. Fugitt presented John Frye, Governor of Mountaineer Boys State and President of Boys Nation to preside over the assemblies and sessions of Board of Public Works until his successor was elected and qualified. Following a few introductory remarks about the program for the first part of the week, the meeting was adjourned for dinner.

The main obstacle to enlarging the attendance at Boys State is created by the lack of facilities at Jackson's Mill to accommodate a greater number of boys.

At 9:00 A. M., Saturday morning, the concluding assembly was held for the presentation of merit certificates, identification cards, lapel pins, and final statements by the 1957 officers of Mountaineer Boys State. Counselor G. E. "Fritz" Heller, National American Legion representative and Counselor in Citizenship spoke briefly about the proper outcomes of the course in government, the value of friendships, and urged the citizens to put into practice in their home community the lessons they learned during the week.

Boys State Observes Twentieth Anniversary

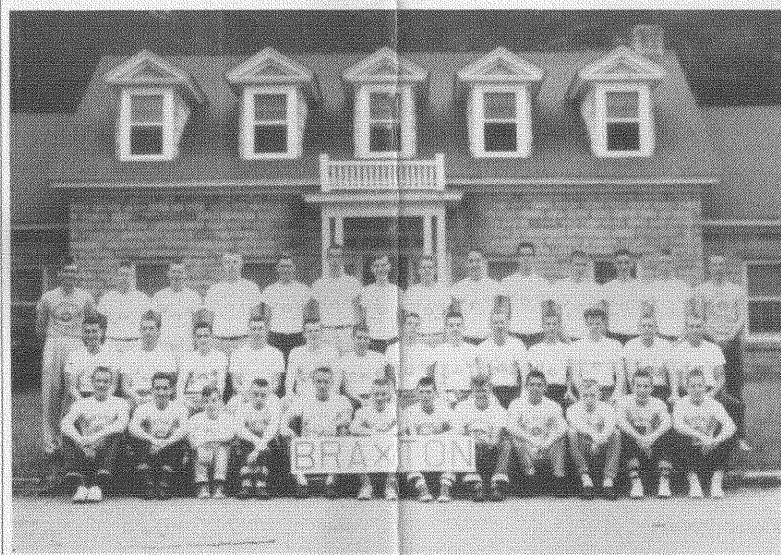

In observing the 20th Anniversary of Mountaineer Boys State, all Past Governors were invited to attend the anniversary banquet and to hear Cecil Underwood address the State. Several past governors sent regrets that they could not attend due to other commitments. Those in attendance were William B. Miller - 1938, David Daugherty - 1946, who reminisced about their experiences during and following their governorships; and Burton Dudding - 1955, Johnny Frye - 1946, who assisted during the week as counselors.

The attempt to locate all past governors was successful to the extent that an address was found for each. From the following list showing their professions it is understandable that many could not return for the occasion.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS—
at 4:00 P. M. A formal review of the citizens was held after the ceremony in connection with RETREAT just prior to the dinner hour.
WEDNESDAY NIGHT — For the first time at Boys State, a banquet type occasion was arranged for all of the past Governors of Boys State who could be present. Past Governors —William B. Miller, Charleston and Chicago; David Daugherty, Huntington and Washington; Burton Dudding, Parkersburg and Boston; and John Frye, Huntington, were able to return. In another column, by noting the addresses of our past governors, it will be understandable that they did not return.
Governor Cecil H. Underwood and his party were delayed at the Charleston Airport by adverse weather conditions but was permitted to take off in time to arrive at the close of the dinner.
He and Mrs. Underwood postponed dinner until after he had addressed the citizens on the subject "Opportunities to participate in Government." Further, he urged a more sincere understanding of the purposes of political parties.

THURSDAY — For our fourth annual West Point representative, Cadet Joseph J. Bobula, Weirton, was selected to appear with the film "The West Point Story" and to answer questions about entrance qualifications and standards of conduct and achievement. Chief among his remarks were, "One should never enter West Point except to make it a career", and that "a Cadet must work for his rank" by preparing himself morally and physically for the task.
Captain W. E. Thomas, Clarksburg, Army Advisor to the Army Reserve Corps in W. Va., appeared with Cadet Bobula and contributed supplementary comments on "Careers."
FRIDAY — The concluding assembly of the week was composed of "valent" acts from each of the 13 counties of Boys State. Visitors from home and from neighboring communities were entertained for several hours with magic, mind reading, levitation, escape feats, musical numbers and humorous monologues. Kanawha County received the award for the best program from the judges.
