YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY OF BOYS STATE

LESLIE G. REED
Governor, 1936

More than 300 boys came to Jackson's Mill on June 6, 1936, for the first Boys State. The camp was more or less in the nature of an experiment but it turned out remarkably well. The highlight of the State was the work of the Legislature. Among the outstanding speakers on the program were Governor H. Guy Kump, Col. W. H. Waldron, Attorney-General H. A. "Rocky" Holt and C. M. "Chuck" Wilson. William G. Stathers of Clarksburg, was department commander of the Amercian Legion and president of Boys State. Leslie G. Reed of Clarksburg won the Governor post by a 5 to 1 majority over Orin Conaway of Sistersville.

PAUL CRONIN
Governor, 1937

A total of 413 boys, the largest number in history, crowded Jackson's Mill for the second Boys State. Paul Cronin of Weirton, was elected governor over Bud Spelsburg, of Clarksburg, by a margin of five votes.

A convention adopted a Boys State constitution and a general election ratified the document. An extensive court system was set up to provide more attraction and instruction for the citizens.

Among the distinguished visitors were Governor Holt, Judge Jo N. Kenna, president of the state supreme court of appeals, Col. W. H. Waldron and Homer Chaillaux. Charles Booth of Huntington was commander of the Legion and president of Boys State.

WILLIAM G. MILLER
Governor, 1938

Automatic voting machines and a statewide broadcast featured the third Boys State. William Miller of Charleston, was chosen governor and received the oath of office from Judge Haymond Maxwell of the state supreme court. The ceremonies were broadcast over the statewide West Virginia network.

Automatic voting machines were installed for the first time and all citizens used them in both the primary and general elections.

For the first time citizenship in Boys State was limited to those who were juniors or seniors in high school. There were 337 in attendance.

"Men of Tomorrow," the official song of the Mountaineer Boys State, was written by Roy Lee Harmon, poet laureate of West Virginia, with music by Margaret Nicely, was sung for the first time.

RODNEY WOLFORD
Governor, 1939

More than 380 high school youths came to the 1939 Boys State and elected Rodney Wilford of Huntington, governor. The election contest was between the east and the south for the first time in the four-year history of the state.

State police were given more intensive training, the courts were better equipped, voting machines were used again and a home rule amendment was adopted.

A state-wide broadcast over West Virginia Network carried the inaugural ceremonies of Governor Wilford. The oath was administered by Judge Fred L. Fox, president of the state supreme court.

Governor Homer A. Holt flew to the Camp from Charleston to take part in the inaugural ceremonies.

JAMES H. FRESH
Governor, 1940

The gubernatorial contest at this state was centered in Northern West Virginia, with James Fresh of Clarksburg, and Robert Leaf, of Fairmont the two candidates. Fresh won the election with a majority of 91 votes.

Melvin Burka of Clarksburg, secretary of state, refused to sign the commission of Gordon Shingleton, Fresh's appointee as commissioner of health, upon the grounds that Shingleton was not qualified for the office. The case was carried to the supreme court of appeals which handed down a unanimous decision forcing Burka to sign the commission.

Governor Fresh appointed four men as honorary colonels on his staff. They included T. F. Williams, department commander of the Legion; Raymond J. Kelly, national Legion commander; Joseph R. Curl, Boys State Counselor in charge of the courts; and John Newcome, for four years a county counselor in camp.

JACK LEE
Governor, 1941

Allen Simmons of Wheeling, became the second chief counselor in the history of Boys State when he succeeded R. Worth Shumaker, of Buckhannon. Mr. Shumaker resigned to accept a post with the American Legion in Indianapolis.

In the primary election Monday, Jack Lee and Bill Teel were chosen to head the Nationalist and Federalist tickets. Lee won the general election Tuesday with a majority of only five votes.

Governor James Fresh of Clarksburg, presided at the assembly until Governor Lee was sworn in by Judge Jo N. Kenna, President of the Supreme Court of Appeals.

A draft age poll was conducted by the Mountaineer to find the opinion of the State on lowering of the draft age limit to 18 years. A seven-vote margin gave those in favor of lowering the age the victory.

The attendance for the 1941 State was 404.

AN ANCIENT PROVERB FOR GUIDANCE

He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not—he is foolish, shun him;
He who knows not, and knows that he knows not—he is unlearned, teach him;
He who knows, and knows not that he knows—he is asleep, awaken him;
He who knows, and knows that he knows—he is wise, follow him.

Boys State Senate – 1958

RICHARD TURNER
Governor, 1942

Dick Turner of Huntington, member of the Federalist party, was elected Governor of the first wartime Boys State, attended by more than 400 citizens. Turner defeated Ryland Miller of Charleston, by five votes.

Featured speakers included: Governor M. M. Neely, Senator Harley M. Kilgore, R. Worth Shumaker, William G. Stathers, Judge Fred L. Fox, Dean C. R. Orten of West Virginia University.

One unpleasant feature of 1942 Boys State was the unusually rainy weather. Heavy showers fell every day, playing havoc with the various cottages.

Stuart Thayer of Charleston, secretary of Boys State won the Poling Memorial Award—a baby bond, for being the outstanding citizen of 1942.

The Board of Directors, in recognition of the exigencies of the war years, cancelled Boys State for the years 1943 and 1945.

TOM LANGFITT
Governor, 1944

Tom Langfitt of Clarksburg, member of the Nationalist Party, was elected Governor of the Eighth Boys State, defeating Richard Miller of Elm Grove, by a close vote of 179-173.

Despite the exigencies of the War and restricted transportation, 363 boys attended Boys State in 1944.

An event which will, no doubt, be remembered years to come was the announcement just before breakfast, Tuesday, June 6, that the long-expected invasion of Western Europe had been launched by the Allies.

Chief Counselor for the 1944 Boys State was Dr. M. R. Dodd, who succeeded Allen Simmons, counselor in 1942.

DAVE DAUGHERTY
Governor, 1946

David Daugherty, of Huntington, headed the Federalist ticket in winning the election for governor from Max Unger, also of Huntington. The final official results were not known until the Supreme Court handed down its decision in the case of contested ballots of Randolph County.

W. R. Fugitt became the fourth counselor of Boys State, succeeding Dr. M. R. Dodd, Charleston, chief counselor in 1944.

This was the first year that 298 citizens were divided evenly between high school juniors and seniors. This was done to provide an opportunity for those who would have attended last year's camp had it been held.

ELMER H. FREEZE
Governor, 1947

The Federalist party remained in power as Elmer Freeze of Wheeling walked off with the governor's race over James Cooper of Thomas.

A total of 3,400 citizens was reached with this year's 323 youths in attendance.

James E. Hayes of Chester was the only veteran of World War II in attendance this year. There were two in 1946.

Governor Freeze and John Scott of Mt. Hope were selected to attend the Second Boys Forum of National Government in Washington August 1-7.

Department commander of the American Legion was Edmund Lee Jones of Wheeling.

Outstanding action during the week was in the state legislature where the Federalists should have had a majority. The Nationalists, however, took advantage of the absence of three Feds to ram through their man as President of the upper chamber. Therefore the Governor had difficulty in getting legislation okayed.

DAVID
HERMANSDORFFER
Governor, 1948

David Hermansdorffer, the Federalist candidate for Governor was swept into office in the election which carried all Federalists into the State office except the Commissioner of Agriculture and two members of the State Supreme Court.

The Governor's recommendation for adoption of a Universal Military Training program was approved by the Legislature, the act including provisions for UMT graduates to become appointees to West Point and Annapolis and to replace the Officer Reserve Corps units and to provide a Bill of Rights for those men participating in the UMT program.

Past Governors Freeze and Daugherty returned with Counseling, continuing the precedent of having the retiring Governor present for the duration of the State.

HENRY "Happy"
SHORES
Governor, 1949

The 12-state offices were divided evenly between the two parties in the 1949 Boys State, with the Nationalist candidate, Henry "Hoppy" Shores, of Charleston, emerging victorious in the gubernatorial campaign. The inauguration ceremonies were highlighted by the presence of West Virginia's governor, Okey Patteson, who addressed the 324 staters and staff members.

An official Boys State flag was adopted by a record 314-7 vote in a special election which followed Governor Shores' request for it in his message to the joint session of the legislature and quick passage in both houses. The approved design uses the figure of Stonewall Jackson as the main feature, surrounded by a blue circle.

TED RAKE
Governor, 1950

Ted Rake, Nationalist, became the first Parkersburg Boys State Governor in an election that almost swamped the Federalist party which salvaged only the office of State Auditor and one membership on the Supreme Court. With control of the House and Senate, a constitutional amendment was submitted proposing to abolish the method of settling "tie" contests by lot. The amendment was approved by a large majority. Donald R. Wilson, Past Department Commander inspired the State with his address depicting the dangers of subversive groups in America.

ROBERT MORGAN
Governor, 1951

A Boys State kept humming by a Legislature and a Governor of different political parties; a campaign reminiscent of early days featuring a parade placards and banners; lusty singing of 'Men of Tomorrow', the official Boys State song and the new and popular 'sound-off' chant; a new roll-call stunt in assembly; the selection of county representatives for 'Outstanding Citizenship' awards; and the Legislature's defeat of the administration bill to establish an Inaugural Ball; these were the ingredients of the 14th Mountaineer Boys State. The Federalists elected the Governor but the Nationalists captured four of the remaining six posts on the Board of Public Works, won a 3-2 majority on the Supreme Court and control of both houses of the Legislature.

JIM ST. CLAIR
Governor, 1952

Continuing the dominance of the Federalists by majorities in the Senate and House of Delegates, Governor St. Clair's regime, however, ran into difficulty when the Nationalists out-maneuvered his party and organized the House of Delegates. In spite of this disadvantage, the Governor won support for his budget bill, secured passage of a pest control bill, legislation to authorize the extension of the session to 10 days, and for the paving of the outdoor athletic courts at Jackson's Mill. Governor St. Clair was chosen to represent West Virginia at Boys Nation in Washington during July.

RUSSELL A. THOM, JR.
Governor, 1953

The 1953 Boys State election produced a Nationalist governor but left the state administration greatly divided.

Russell A. "Rat" Thom, Jr., of Charleston defeated Glenn "Whitey" Sedam of Nutter Fort but lost the Board of Public Works 4-3 to the Federalists. The legislature was badly divided with a 12-12 tie in the Senate and the Federalists a 26-22 margin in the House. The Governor, however, had a 4-1 majority on the Supreme Court.

The legislature passed one of its most far-reaching bills this year when it authorized Governor Thom to help establish a Youth Safety Driving Council which would encompass every student in every high school in the state. The legislature set up a North-South-East-West turnpike commission and voted to allow 18-year-olds to vote.

CHARLES F. LUCAS
Governor, 1954

During this year Governor Lucas discovered the difficulties attendant upon organization of a Legislature controlled by the opposition party. Partisanship delayed the passage of the budget bill and caused a call for an extraordinary session for this purpose although the regular legislation providing for the shift of the soft drink tax to the state's liquor monopoly and the continuation of the Youth Safety Councils throughout the state were passed by safe margins. When the extraordinary session failed to convene, a test case was prepared and presented to the Supreme Court restraining an increase in salary for the Commissioner of Agriculture. Voting machines were used for the official election for the first time since 1939.

BURTON A. DUDDING
Governor, 1955

Governor Dudding's term began with serious difficulties because of a divided House and Senate, but these were soon won over by the serious approach to major legislation on the part of the Governor and Board of Public Works.

The use of voting machines facilitated the counting of results from a complicated ballot. A series of excellent evening programs by Governor Marland, Justice Chauncey Browning, Rev. Walter Overstreet, and West Point Cadet Gene Wilson provided instruction, guidance, and entertainment. For the first time in the history of the State, the West Virginia Legislature set aside a joint session during January, 1956, for an address by Governor Dudding and the West Virginia Board of Public Works gave the afternoon to consultation and study of the offices to their counterparts from Boys State.

JOHN FRYE
Governor, 1956

The pattern of Boys State politics was repeated this year as the governorship was won by a party which failed to provide him with a majority in the Legislature. Governor John Frye was designated to attend Boys Nation in Washington, from which he emerged as the President . . . an outstanding honor and distinction for himself and the State. W. R. Fugitt observed his connection with Boys State since 1942 . . . and his 12 years as Chief Counselor. Plans were made to celebrate the 20th annual session of Boys State next year by a program for all Past Governors. For the second time the West Virginia Legislature adopted a concurrent resolution for a joint session in February to hear an address by Governor Frye, following which the members of both Boards of Public Works visited and conferred with each other.

JOHN F. KILE
Governor, 1957

John Kile became the 10th Federalist Governor, but the Supreme Court and Board of Public Works were captured by the Nationalist nominees. The Federalist's controlled the Senate by the narrow margin of 14-12, but lost the House of Delegates to the Nationalists 27-25. Governor Kile faced the same difficulty encountered by most of his predecessors in that he faced a divided legislature in presenting his program for adoption. During Governor Kile's term of office, the State celebrated it's Twentieth Anniversary and was host to the past governors of Mountaineer Boys State at a banquet in their honor. For the first time a program was presented by Midshipman Don Thompson from the Naval Academy at Annapolis. The State viewed the "Annapolis Story," and the Staters showed a solid interest in the Academy by the many questions presented to Midshipman Thompson. For the first time, the Mountaineer Boys State Flag was flown. The flag has the profile of "Stonewall" Jackson surrounded by the 13 counties of Boys State represented by stars in navy blue upon a white background with gold tassel trim. Governor Underwood flew to the Camp from Charleston to speak to the State, and Judge Chauncey Browning administered the Oath of Office to the Governor, the members of the Board of Public Works and the Boys State Supreme Court of Appeals, at the inauguration ceremonies held in the ampitheatre.

The American Legion Mountaineer Boys State Official Song

"MEN OF TOMORROW"

Oh, we're the . . . .
Men of Tomorrow, we march along in happy ranks today.
We never borrow a bit of care or grief along the way.
Gladly we're learning the things a good American should know.
Gladly we're yearning to chart the way a patriot should go.
With lessons done, objectives won
Good citizens we'll be;
We'll proudly stand in our home land
Where Mountaineers are free,
Men of tomorrow, good fellowship each one of us enjoys,
Men of tomorrow . . . a group of all American boys.

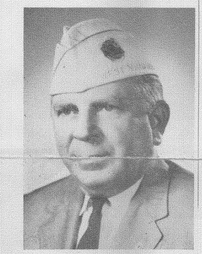
JACKSON'S MILL—HOME OF BOYS STATE

Nestled in the most beautiful hills of West Virginia is Jackson's Mill which triumphantly offers every comfort and recreational facility of a modern camp. The native stone Mt. Vernon dining hall, the dozen or more spacious and healthful county cottages, a large assembly hall and other buildings, an outdoor swimming pool, tennis court, fields for all sports and other facilities make Jackson's Mill an ideal home for the American Legion Mountaineer Boys State.

Assembly Programs Chart Course Of Events

Opening the 21st session of the American Legion Mountaineer Boys State at 1:00 P.M. Sunday, June 1, 1958, the proficiency of the Counselors matched that of previous years by completing the enrollment of the citizens, the assignment to county, city and political party, distribution of supplies including a Manual of Government, the West Virginia Blue Book, a Boys State T-Shirt as formal dress for the week, and the inspection by the medical officer to determine that each boy was physically able to participate and was free of communicable diseases, before 4:00 P.M., at which time the citizens gathered at the Century of Progress Building for the first assembly. Until the closing of the session the following Saturday morning, each one is to find himself engaged in actual governmental experiences, in study of political procedures, in participation with the band, in athletics or in the exchange of fellowship with his fellows.



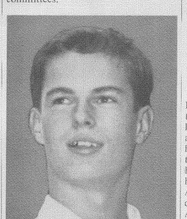
Commander Dewey Mentz

Sunday Afternoon

The opening session of the week is reserved for introduction of the citizens to the staff of counselors, to the various sponsors of the program, to the divisions of the work and to specific steps in the organization of political parties. Chief Counselor W. R. Fugitt presented John Kile, Governor of Mountaineer Boys State to preside over the assemblies and sessions of Board of Public Works until his successor was elected and qualified. Following a few introductory remarks about the program for the first part of the week, the meeting was adjourned for dinner.

Sunday Night 7:30 P.M.

This assembly was given exclusively to instruction in the formation of political parties, the election and functions of a party executive committee, a senatorial committee and a judicial circuit committee. This was outlined to the citizens by Frank Taylor, Jr. After further introduction of counselors assigned to political parties, answering questions on procedure, the county counselors and the citizens went to their respective cottages. By 10:30 P.M., the sponsors of the Nationalist and Federalist parties were in session with the state executive committees.



Wulf Menzel

MONDAY:—The first citizen assembly was opened by our incumbent Governor John Kile, who presented Rex Adams of Oak Hill. Both spoke on their various experiences at Boys Nation which was conducted in Washington for two representatives of each state where the National Government organization is established for a week's study.

TUESDAY:—This assembly was quite different from any previously held at Boys State in that Wulf Menzel of Hamburg, Germany, and Goran Dalfelt of Angelholm, Sweden, spoke to the boys. Both boys were brought here by the American Field Service and had spent a year in American homes and attended high school in the respective cities to which they had been assigned. The boys explained how they had been chosen to come to America and compared life in their own countries to that in America. After answering questions from the staters, the remainder of the time was spent in learning the Mountaineer Boys State song, "Men of Tomorrow."

Goran Dalfelt

WEDNESDAY: — Traditionally, Wednesday is reserved for the inauguration of the newly elected officials of the State . . . Honorable Chauncey Browning, member, Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia administered the oath of office to the Governor, the members of the Board of Public Works and the Boys State Supreme Court of Appeals . . ., at 4:00 P.M., a formal review of the citizens was held after the ceremony in connection with RETREAT just prior to the dinner hour.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT:—Governor Underwood addressed the State in a meeting in the dining hall. He flew in from Charleston, arriving at 6:15 and leaving later in the evening. Governor Underwood told the state that Boys State is good because "the best way to instill citizenship is to become involved in practice." He congratulated the American Legion for fostering the idea of Boys State to provide practice in citizenship. The Governor was flown here by his pilot, Edsel France, and was accompanied by Adjutant General William Blake. He was introduced by Governor Hunneshagen.

THURSDAY:—For our fifth annual West Point representative, Cadet George Gwinn, Beckley, was selected to appear with the film "The Making of a West Pointer," and to answer questions about entrance qualifications and standards of conduct and achievement. He emphasized the "Honor System" and that leaders must first learn to follow.

The State Adjourns

At 9:00 A.M., Saturday morning, the concluding assembly was held for the presentation of merit certificates, lapel pins, and final statements by the 1958 officers of Mountaineer Boys State. With the strains of Auld Lang Syne still in the air, the "Men of Tomorrow" left for their respective communities to put to practice the lessons they had learned during the week.

A trumpet trio composed of Jim Swiger of Braxton County, Allen Howcroft of Gilmer County, Butch Janes of Ohio County and Gary Gorby of Upshur County took top honors at the Friday night Talent Assembly. 7,197 Graduate

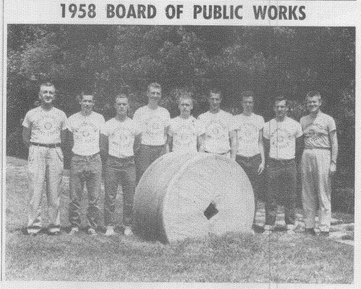
With the number of graduates passing the 7,000 mark in attendance at Boys State, several questions arise each year pertaining to extending the advantages to a greater number of boys. The main obstacle to enlarging the attendance at Boys State is created by the lack of facilities at Jackson's Mill to accommodate a greater number. It is doubtful that more cottages would solve the problem at the Mill because of the limitation upon dining facilities. To change Mt. Vernon Dining Hall or to add more cabins would detract from the architectural and landscape features of the present plan.

To Attend Boys Nation—July 18-25

In a system patterned after the U. S. Senate organization, the American Legion sponsors Boys Nation in Washington, D. C. for the purpose of teaching federal government to representatives from the Boys States. Gene Groves, Terra Alta, the designated outstanding citizen of Calhoun County of Mountaineer Boys State and Governor Dean Hunneshagen, South Charleston, have been selected to attend Boys Nation—July 18-25.

1958 BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS



Dean Hunneshagen led the Nationalist party to a near-sweep of the 21st Boys State election. His party captured six of the seven seats on the Board of Public Works and majority of the five seats on the Supreme Court.

Dean Hunneshagen becomes the

Governor Dean Hunneshagen

11th Nationalist Governor winning over his Federalist opponent Gene Groves by a vote of 187 to 151.

The only successful Federalist was Deck Walker who is the Secretary of State, all other offices were won by the Nationalist nominees.

After the general assembly Tuesday night, the citizens attended political rallies where candidates presented their platforms and debated the issues prior to the opening of the polls.

Governor Hunneshagen was not faced with the same difficulty encountered by most of his predecessors in that he faced a united legislature in presenting his program for adoption.

Report Of The Chief Counselor

W. R. Fugitt

A glance at the officers and counselors listed in this issue will assure the parents of the Boys Staters of the high type of individuals chosen to conduct and supervise the governmental and recreational activities of the American Legion "model school of citizenship." With such a group of men to guide them, the Staters are able to accomplish the objectives of the program in the short time available. Only by rigid assignment of each boy to a specific time and place is it possible to provide him with the variety of experiences he receives. The form which the activities take and the facility with which the groups move to specific assignments are the result of each boy's acceptance of responsibility for success of all programs.

The record of achievement during the 1958 Boys State is an expression of thanks to the civic, professional, religious, and patriotic groups who sponsor them to this annual school of citizenship offered by the American Legion. The Legion itself is grateful to the school principals and sponsoring organizations for selecting those boys who have the capacity and potential to develop into leaders in the community.

Total Political Offices

The election of Dean Hunneshagen as the 21st Governor of Boys State placed the Nationalists party ahead 11-10, for occupancy of the governorship of Mountaineer Boys State. The Nationalists also took the commanding lead in election to the Board of Public Works 74-73 as they captured six of the seven seats on the Board. The Nationalists have also built up a 60-42 lead in election to the Supreme Court of Appeals. The analysis during the history of Boys State is
