YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY OF BOYS STATE

More than 300 boys came to Jackson's Mill on [June 6, 1936, for the first Boys State. The camp was more or less in the nature of an experiment but it turned out remarkably well. The highlight of the State was the work of the Legislature. Among the utstanding speakers on the program were Governor H. Guy Kump, Col. W. H. Waldron, Attorney-General H. A. "Rocky" Holt and C. M. "Chuck" Wilson. Villiam G. Stathers of Clarksburg, was department ommander of the Amercian Legion and president Boys State, Leslie G. Reed of Clarksburg won the Governor post by a 5 to 1 majority over Orin Conaway of Sistersville.

A total of 413 boys, the largest number in history, crowded Jackson's Mill for the second Boys State. Paul Cronin of Weirton, was elected governor over Bud Spelsburg, of Clarksburg, by a margin of five

A convention adopted a Boys State constitution and a general election ratified the document. An extensive court system was set up to provide more attraction and instruction for the citizens. Among the distinguished visitors were Governor Holt, Judge Jo N. Kenna, president of the state supreme court of appeals, Col. W. H. Waldron and Homer Chaillaux. Charles Booth of Huntington was commander of the Legion and president of Boys State.

Automatic voting machines and a statewide broadeast featured the third Boys State. William Miller of Charleston, was chosen governor and received the oath of office from Judge Haymond Maxwell of the state supreme court. The ceremonies were broadcast over the statewide West Virginia network. Automatic voting machines were installed for the first time and all citizens used them in both the priary and general elections.

For the first time citizenship in Boys State was imited to those who were juniors or seniors in high school. There were 337 in attendance. "Men of Tomorrow," the official song of the Mountaineer Boys State, was written by Roy Lee was sung for the first time. More than 380 high school youths came to the 1939 Boys State and elected Rodney Wilford of Huntington, governor. The election contest was between the east and the south for the first time in the four-year history of the state. State police were given more intensive training. the courts were better equipped, voting machines were used again and a home rule amendment was adopted. A state-wide broadcast over West Virginia Network carried the inaugural ceremonies of Governor Wilford. The oath was administered by Judge Fred L. Fox, president of the state supreme court.

Melvin Burka of Clarksburg, secretary of state, efused to sign the commission of Gordon Shingleton, Fresh's appointee as commissioner of health, upon e grounds that Shingleton was not qualified for the office. The case was carried to the supreme court of ppeals which handed down a unanimous decision rcing Burka to sign the commission. Governor Fresh appointed four men as honorary colonels on his staff. They included T. F. Williams, department commander of the Legion; Raymond J. Kelly, national Legion commander; Joseph R. Curl, Boys State Counselor in charge of the courts; and John Newcome, for four years a county counselor in camp.

Allen Simmons of Wheeling, became the second chief counselor in the history of Boys State when he succeeded R. Worth Shumaker, of Buckhannon, Mr. Shumaker resigned to accept a post with the American Legion in Indianapolis.

In the primary election Monday, Jack Lee and Bill Teel were chosen to head the Nationalist and Federalist tickets. Lee won the general election Tuesday with a majority of only five votes, Governor James Fresh of Clarksburg, presided at the assembly until Governor Lee was sworn in by

The amendment was approved by a large majority. Donald R. Wilson, Past Department Commander inspired the State with his address depicting the dangers of subversive groups in America.

A Boys State kept humming by a Legislature and a Governor of different political parties; a cam paign reminiscent of early days featuring a parac blacards and banners; lusty singing of 'Men of To morrow', the official Boys State song and the new and popular 'sound-off' chant: a new roll-call stunt i ssembly: the selection of county representative Outstanding Citizenship' awards; and the Legisla feat of the administration bill to establish on a 3-2 majority on the Supreme Court and conof both houses of the Legislature.

Continuing the dominance of the Federalists by majorities in the Senate and House of Delegates, Gov ernor St. Clair's regime, however, ran into difficulty when the Nationalists out-maneuvered his party and organized the House of Delegates. In spite of this disadvantage, the Governor won support for his budget bill, secured passage of a pest control bill, legislation to authorize the extension of the session to 10 days, and for the paving of the outdoor athletic courts at Jackson's Mill. Governor St. Clair was chosen to represent West Virginia at Boys Nation in Washington during July.

The 1953 Boys State election produced a Nationalist governor but left the state administration

Russeli A. "Rat" Thom, Jr., of Charleston defeated Glenn "Whitey" Sedam of Nutter Fort but lost the Board of Public Works 4-3 to the Federalists. The legislature was badly divided with a 12-12 tie in he Senate and the Federalists a 26-22 margin in the House. The Governor, however, had a 4-1 majority on the Supreme Court. The legislature passed one of its most far-reaching bills this year when it authorized Governor Thom help establish a Youth Safety Driving Council RUSSELL A. THOM, which would encompass every student in every high hool in the state. The legislature set up a North-South-East-West turnpike commission and voted to allow 18-year-olds to vote.

Partisanship delayed the passage of the budget bill and caused a call for an extraordinary session for this purpose although the regular legislation providing for the shift of the soft drink tax to the state's liquor monopoly and the continuation of the Youth Safety Councils throughout the state were passed by safe margins. When the extraordinary session failed to convene, a test case was prepared and presented to the Supreme Court restraining an increase in salary for the Commissioner of Agriculture. Voting machines were used for the official election for the first time since 1939.

Governor Dudding's term began with serious difficulties because of a divided House and Senate, but these were soon won over by the serious approach to major legislation on the part of the Governor and Board of Public Works.

The use of voting machines facilitated the counting of results from a complicated ballot. A series of excellent evening programs by Governor Marland, Jusice Chauncey Browning, Rev. Walter Overstreet, and West Point Cadet Gene Wilson provided instruction, uidance, and entertainment. For the first time in the istory of the State, the West Virginia Legislature set aside a joint session during January, 1956, for an address by Governor Dudding and the West Virginia Board of Public Works gave the afternoon to consultation and study of the effort to guide them to a better understanding of our form of government and the operation of its component parts. Each year we are favored by some fifty volunteers to whom the American Legion is deeply indebted for their efforts, in whom the parents may place their confidence, and with whom the citizens join in many facets of cooperation, fellowship and trust while learning the principles of American Government through active participation in elective and appointive offices.

To the Sponsors The numerous organizations that provide the sponsorship of the 342 boys should be proud of the efforts of the boys in adapting themselves to the strict requirements of achievement expected of them by the lecturers and counselors. By this degree of study and accomplishment, the citizens express their thanks to the sponsors for their support.

Knowing the difficulties of local selection, we are further indebted to the High School Principals for adherence to high standards of Scholarship and Character. Without this cooperation the purposes of the Legions' School of Citizenship would be lost in the shuffle of preference and the efforts of the counselors would be dissipated by inertia and ineptitude.

Therefore, personally and as a representative of the American Legion GUY BAMBRICK Department of West Virginia, our gratitude is expressed to those who have permitted us to be a part of this association with the potential leaders whom our song characterizes as the "Men of Tomorrow."
