V. 44 No. 6

Saturday, June 20, 1981

In my first (and only) year as Editor of "The Mountaineer", I would like to express my appreciation to all of the people who helped gather information, type it, run it, put it together and especially those of you who read it. Since I was not given the task of being Editor until Sunday, I hope you will overlook the little flaws we have made. There is a whole year to get some help and next year things will be better. My special thanks to Jewell Dean, Margie, Ginny, Pat, Mary, Susan, Mark, Joe, Rod, Nickie Pete, Jeff, Tony, Tom, Bill, Dave, Rod, Dave, Cindy and Betty Ann.

We have tried to do the "write" things.

Jim Riffle
Editor

The Friday assembly was a program on drugs presented by Mr. Michael Wink and Mr. Tim Deperio from the District Court of Southern West Virginia.

Mr. Wink was a Boys' Stater in 1970 and attended Charleston High School, Air Force Academy, University of Vermont and West Virginia University, where he received his law degree. He spoke of his duties and gave examples of cases in which he had been associated. He indicated that friends will be the ones that eventually cause a person to go to prison.

Mr. Tim Deperio graduated from St. Joe High School, Notre Dame University and received his law degree from West Virginia University. He was the chief prosecutor in the "Pot Plane Case" in Kanawha County. He gave examples of people who had been convicted for drug related crimes. He believes the Reagan administration will try to stop violent crime.

Both Mr. Wink and Mr. Deperio were well received by the Boys' Staters.

A talent show concluded the assembly program. A list of performances can be found on a later page of the pager.

Following the assembly program, the Boys' Staters enjoyed hot dogs and refreshments at the annual Boys' State picnic.
