KNOW YOUR ELECTED OFFICIALS

GOVERNOR

Gregory R. Lunsford of Route 1, Mason Road, Milton, West Virginia, was elected as the 50th Governor of Mountaineer Boys' State

He is the son of Larry and Karen Lunsford. He has an older brother and sister, Brooke and Jennifer. He enjoys baseball, football, speaking, and helping friends. He is a two year starter in football and baseball and is a one year starter in basketball.

As a freshman, "Ike" was the top male athlete, student body president, captain of football and basketball and track and placed second in the county wrestling tournament.

He was sophomore class president, all state pitcher in baseball and placed second in "news writing" at United High School Press. He was Mr. "Whippit" as a sophomore which is equivalent to Miss Greyhound.

He was president of the Junior Class, Vice-President of SADD, and all conference basketball, all conference baseball, managing editor of school paper, Mr. Greypup, selected as an All-American, elected as Student Body President to serve in 1987-88.

"Ike" was a member of the Federalist Party while at Jackson's Mill and lived in Lewis Cottage. He will spend his senior year at Milton High School. He is now seeing Beth Parsons. He tells us that she sent him two letters on Wednesday. Good Luck, "Ike", and congratulations!!!

SECRETARY OF STATE

Secretary of State, David Avella, was born in Martinsburg, West Virginia, on January 17, 1970. He has lived there most of his life except for a short period when he resided in Hampton, Virginia. He is the son of Edward J. and Pat Avella and the brother of Anita Avella.

David is currently the student government president at Hedgesville High School. He has taken an active part in school government, class representative (10-12) grade. David has received the United States Achievement Academy Student Government Award two years in a row.

In the future, David plans to attend Shepherd College and major in Education. He also wants to become a politician and hold a state office to improve the great state of West Virginia.

He wants to leave one message for all boy staters, "To be a good leader, you must be able to be strong enough to take criticism, but smart enough to take advice.."

TREASURER OF STATE

Hi, how ya' doing? I'm Dana Tomes. I live at 4857 Ohio River Road, in Huntington, West Virginia. My parents are Douglas and Betty Tomes. I have one sister named Tamara. I like to write stories, make people happy, and most of all, eat ice cream.

I'm involved in cross country. I'm an office assistant. I'm a Key Club Lieutenant Governor. I'm a 1985 Hugh O'Brian Ambassador

I go to Huntington East High School in Cabell County. I want to be a journalist for a major U.S. Newspaper. Also, I'd like to be a motorcycle repairman..

I was student body Treasurer in the tenth grade and Student Principal in Jr. High.

I go to the 26th Street Baptist Church in Huntington.

I think Larry "The Yo-Ho" is the greatest. I lived in Webster Cottage while I was a citizen of Boys' State.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Bruce Batman, newly elected Attorney General of Mountaineer Boys' State, lives at 109 Edison Street, Nutter Fort, West Virginia. He attends Roosevelt-Wilson High School where he was VP of the Student Council his freshman year. He was class president of his Sophomore class and Student Body Treasurer. He also chaired the Constitutional and Calendar committees. He will be the Student Council President during his Senior year.

Bruce was a member of the Latin Club; serving as Historian, V.P., State Secretary, and State V.P.

He was a member of the Foreign Language Club and served as its President.

He is a member of the State Honor Roll, Selected to the Governor's Honors Academy, and Secretary of National Honor Society.

He participated in football in the 9th grade, basketball in grades 9, 10, and 11, and tennis, grade 10. He played the lead role in the school play (Bye Bye Birdie) in the 11th grade. His hobbies include tennis, Kristen, and collecting "Batman" memorabilia

His future plans are to attend Bucknell University in Pennsylvania and study the physical sciences and political science.

AT THE TIME OF PRINTING, NO OTHER ELECTED OFFICIALS HAD RESPONDED TO THE REQUEST FOR A BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH FOR THE NEWSPAPER. WE'RE SORRY YOU DID NOT APPEAR, BUT WE WISH YOU MUCH LUCK AND SUCCESS IN THE YEARS AHEAD.

COUNSELORS AND CITIZENS "PLAY BALL"

LAST NIGHT AT THE AREA I SOFTBALL FIELD, THE CONFLICT BETWEEN THE COUNSELORS AND CITIZENS WAS SETTLED. THE CITIZENS SCORED 6 RUNS OVER FIVE INNINGS TO DEFEAT THE COUNSELORS IN A GAME THAT HAROLD HAGY DOMINATED. HAGY PLAYED OUTSTANDING SECOND BASE FOR THE BOYS IN BLUE WHILE HE ALSO COLLECTED THE TEAMS' BEST STATS AT THE PLATE. THE COUNSELORS ONLY TWO RUNS CAME ON SPUD WEBSTER'S HOME RUN THAT ALSO SCORED BUTCH KNOWLTON. JUSTICE JEFF TRIPLETT HAD 2 HOME RUNS FOR THE CITIZENS. HOWEVER, COUNSELOR SHAUNE WHITE FROM LEWIS COTTAGE SAID: "THIS IS ONLY A MINOR SETBACK IN THE ONGOING CONFLICT BETWEEN THE 2 RIVALS," AND THE COUNSELORS WILL CLAIM VICTORY SOON.

THIS ARTICLE WAS SUBMITTED BY: SHAYNE WHITE, ROB STRAIGHT, PAVEL "SARG" BRYAN MINOR, HAROLD HAGY, ANTHONY WEBSTER, "BEETLE" BAILEY, BUTCH KNOWLTON, OBERT WELLS, NEIL STRATTON, AND LARRY YOHO.

NOTICE: If you failed to see the scores for the first session of Athletics today, it's because so many citizens did not show up due to conflicts concerning the formal review. Although some teams did show, it was decided to only count the late afternoon athletic session.

Thank you for your understanding of this problem.

The Athletic Staff,

Fred, Eddie, Dennis, Jonathan, and John
