BOYS' STA

EVENING SPEAKERS FOR MONDAY, JUNE 13, 1988:

The Monday evening speakers were Charlotte Lane, a Supreme Court Justice candidate, and John McCuskey, Commissioner of Finance and Administration.

Mrs. Lane congratulated the Citizens on being selected to participate in Boys' State. She commented that she had been elected to the Girls' State Supreme Court and hoped that her dream would come true this fall.

The candidate for Supreme Court Justice outlined three guidelines for the Citizens:

1. Be Positive and strike the word "can't" from your vocabulary. Regardless of your shortcomings and setbacks, always be optimistic and upbeat, focusing on what is good and looking for opportunity.
2. Have faith in West Virginia - It's a great state with many advantages. We are going through a revitalization process to make our economy strong again.
3. Maintain a sense of humor. Always take your job and responsibilities seriously, but not yourself.

Mrs. Lane lives by this advice and it has served her well through her terms with the House of Delegates, Public Service Commission, and now, as she runs for statewide office.

She also added, "It's important to be kind to your adversaries and remember the saying, 'What goes around, comes around.'" She continued, "An opponent today may be a valued ally at some time in the future. Being courteous, kind and unassuming is a better testimony of yourself than arrogance and pompousness."

Mr. McCuskey spoke of the time when he was a shy Boys' State Citizen who didn't run for an elected office; although he did receive an award for his good citizenship.

The Commissioner of Finance and Administration emphasized the importance of citizenship and how good citizens are the checks and balances on our public office holders. We elect them and our vote can also defeat them.

Mr. McCuskey also stressed the importance and value of getting involved with the proceedings of the week. The friendships you make this week will last many years and provide you with contacts in all parts of the state.

In keeping with his tradition, Mr. McCuskey limited his remarks and kept his talk short, much to the delight of the audience on a hot and humid June evening.

A royal Boys' State welcome to both of our evening speakers. We wish you, Mrs. Lane, much success in your campaign. We welcome you back with us anytime. To Mr. McCuskey, you are a fine representative of the State of West Virginia and will always be welcome to spend time with the Citizens at Mountaineer Boys' State.

JOHN McCUSKEY

CHARLOTTE LANE

SECRETARY OF STATE SPEAKS AT NOON MEAL:

Secretary of State, Ken Hechler, addressed the Citizens with an upbeat talk at the noon meal on Monday, June 14, 1988. Mr. Hechler's talk centered around the theme of "getting involved", the theme of your week here at Boys' State.

The Secretary of State spoke on "Ethics Legislation" and bringing West Virginia in line with 34 other states that have passed similar laws. "It's a shame we haven't been able to get this bill through the Legislature. This past session the bill cleared the House of Delegates, but was killed in the State Senate," said Hechler.

He encouraged the Citizens to "Lobby" their elected officials when they return home to their communities. Mr. Hechler said, "We should 'level the playing field' by having Congress and the State Legislature pass campaign spending limitations. Such a law would make it easier for Boys' State Citizens, their counterparts from Rhododendron Girls' State, and all West Virginians to run for public office in a fair and equitable manner."

Mr. Hechler concluded his message by relaying a story about a banker friend of his from Keystone in McDowell County. The gentleman, upon graduating from college and returning home, was told by his father to go out on the front porch to receive a gift. The son was expecting a beautifully wrapped present. The father turned his son around a full 360 degrees so that he could view everything around him. The father then told his son, "My gift to you is the world. Go out and conquer it." Mr. Hechler said his gift to Boys' State is West Virginia, "Go out and build it and make our state a better place."

Once again, we are very grateful to Mr. Hechler for taking time from his responsibilities and heavy schedule to participate in Boys' State. He is always welcome here at Jackson's Mill.

SPECIAL NEW STAFF MEMBER: BRUCE COX

Bruce K. Cox, a first year staff member at Boys' State, graduated from Parkersburg High School in 1974. He received a B. S. in Business Administration from West Virginia University in May, 1976.

After college, he was employed with the Bell System in Richmond, Virginia. In January, 1984, he transferred to AT&T's headquarters in Basking Ridge, New Jersey, for a six month tour, after which he returned to his native state as AT&T's District Manager for West Virginia. In his current position he is responsible for AT&T's earnings in West Virginia, along with their relationship with State government, the Public Service Commission, and various consumer groups around the state. His office is located in Charleston.

Bruce serves on the Board of Directors of the West Virginia Chamber of Commerce and the Charleston Renaissance Corporation. He is also a member of the Charleston Regional Chamber of Commerce and Development and the Parkersburg Chamber of Commerce. He serves on the State Job Training Coordinating Council, having been appointed by Governor Moore in 1987.

Bruce, his wife, Jan, and their three children reside in Evan Jackson County.

We are grateful to AT&T for their support for the past several years. They have contributed to the Mountaineer Boys' State Program financially and by giving each citizen a frisbee for the past three years. We appreciate their concern and interest and especially for allowing Bruce to spend a week with us. MANY THANKS!

CONGRESSMAN MOLLOHAN SPEAKS TO CITIZENS AT ASSEMBLY:

Congressman Mollohan, 1st Congressional District, of West Virginia, addressed Citizens at the assembly on Monday Evening, June 13, 1988.

His speech, very different and interesting, centered around various historical military heroes of Central West Virginia, including Generals T. J. Stonewall Jackson and Joseph Lightburn. Congressman Mollohan lavishly praised the young men who had been chosen as Boys' State Citizens, reiterating that they have been afforded an honor that many aspire but few attain.

Congressman Mollohan has been exceedingly active in Congressional activities relating to the needs of veterans, social security recipients, and other social needs. He has also been one of the most staunch supporters of an adequate defense system for the United States.

He was just recently nominated to his fourth term in Congress, the same seat which his father, former Congressman Robert H. Mollohand, held for many, many years.

The Congressman is married to the former Barbara Whiting of Glenville, and they reside at the family home in Fairmont, along with four sons and a daughter.

The Congressman was graduated from the College of William and Mary with an A. B. Degree and later received his law degree from West Virginia University. He conducted a private law practice for several years before being elected to Congress. He has long been one of the most popular public officials in West Virginia, and is now a candidate for re-election.

Congressman Alan B. Mollohan is a welcome guest always at Mountaineer Boys' State. We wish him well in his endeavor to be re-elected as our Congressman from the 1st District. Good Luck, Mr. Congressman!!!
