PEAKERS OF THE DAY:

BENEDICT COMES TO JACKSON'S MILL

West Virginia's Commissioner of Agriculture, Cleve Benedict, spoke to the citizens at the Wednesday afternoon meal. Benedict has included youth in his past political campaigns, making him an especially popular speaker with young West Virginians.

Having served as Congressman from the Second Congressional district and now as Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. Benedict's career as a minority party candidate in West Virginia has been exceptional. He gave some useful advice to the citizens regarding the development of leadership in their lives.

Mr. Benedict encouraged the Boys' Staters to speak clearly in their dealings with others, using language that people find understandable. He noted that the political process isn't an easy one, and that leaders have to be willing to make risky decisions sometimes and then stick by them. Leaders have to be flexible, however, and not be reluctant to change when the times demand change.

Above all else, Mr. Benedict urged the Boys' Staters to be comfortable with themselves, to be honest and straightforward with others. "Be what you say you are," he said. He added that he has no doubt that today's Boys' Staters are tomorrow's leaders in whatever career they choose.

Boys' State appreciates Mr. Benedict taking time out of his busy schedule to visit with us here at Jackson's Mill. Welcome back and come again, Cleve!

PRESIDENT OF FAIRMONT STATE COLLEGE SPEAKS AT EVENING MEAL

Mr. Robert J. Dillman and his wife, Roseann, are now living in Fairmont. They have four children: Deirdre, 24 and married; Siobhan, 19; John, 21, and James, 15. Mrs. Dillman says they are enjoying their time in West Virginia. She stated, "It is a beautiful state with wonderful people."

Prior to the Dillman family moving to West Virginia, he served on the faculty of Bridgewater State College and was Chairman of the Geography Department. From this position, he became Vice-President of Academic Affairs, and his last position with the college was Acting President.

Mr. Dillman received his undergraduate degree at State University in New Paltz, New York; his Master's Degree at Penn State, and his PhD at Clark University in Worcester, Massachusetts.

To you, Mr. and Mrs. Dillman, we welcome you to our State and to the Mountaineer Boys' State. Please try to return next year. We Wish You Well....

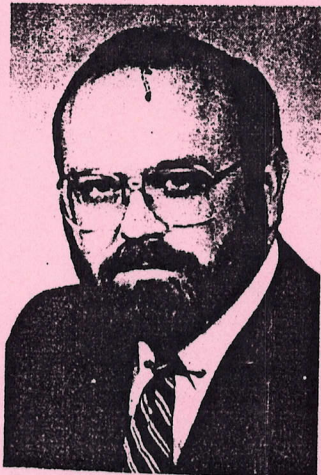

DELEGATE HATCHER OF FAYETTE COUNTY SPEAKS AT EVENING MEAL

John Hatcher, a Member of the House of Delegates and Chairman of the Judiciary was able to take time from his busy schedule to spend some time at Mountaineer Boys' State. He addressed the Citizens at the evening meal. Delegate Hatcher related to the citizens that he had traveled all over the world, and West Virginia is still his favorite place.

He spoke briefly about his time spent here at Jackson's Mill as a Citizen of Boys' State and what it meant to him.

He spoke of the greatness of the state and encouraged the Citizens to remain in the state.

We are pleased to have such outstanding people with us as Delegate John Hatcher. We wish you well, Delegate Hatcher, and invite you to return to this great camp in the future.

JOHN W. HATCHER, JR. (D) of Fayetteville, Fayette County (24th Dist.). Elected in 1980, 1982 and 1986. Committees: Judiciary (Chairman), Rules, Commission on Special Investigations, Joint Committee on Government and Finance. Born May 25, 1944, in Oak Hill; son of J.W. and Maxine Hatcher. Education: West Virginia University (AB); West Virginia University College of Law (JD). Single. Attorney. Baptist. Member, Fayette County Bar Association; W.Va. State Bar; American Legion; National Rifle Association; Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc.; Committee on Suggested State Legislation, Southern Legislative Conference. Former member, W.Va. Board of Banking and Financial Institutions; Former member, Board of Directors, FMRS Mental Health Council, Inc. U.S. Army, Captain, Vietnam.

GOVERNOR COY ARDEN FLOWERS
INAUGURAL ADDRESS
Wednesday, June 14, 1989

Administrator Stine, Governor Redd, Distinguished Guests, and Citizens of Mountaineer Boys' State.

Since the end of elections last night, I have been wondering what emotions and feelings I would have as I stand in front of all Citizens of Boys' State while giving my Inaugural Address. Excitement was the first emotion that came to mind. But the emotions are much more than just excitement. I feel greatly humbled, extremely proud, and actually, somewhat nauseous. I now know what the former Boys' State Governors felt, one of which is saying farewell to us today.

Governor Redd, you have left, no doubt, knowing that your government is not a stumbling block, but a cornerstone of success in which future governments, as well as my own, will be measured. You have been courageous when others were cowardous. You have raised the level to which future governors and myself must achieve. You have exemplified the true spirit of Boys' State. You have left your mark on posterity. For that, we thank you.

I would like at this time to introduce to you two people that I love very much and who drove from Barboursville this morning, my mother and father, Donna and John Flowers.

Throughout my entire campaign, I have gained a tremendous amount of respect and gratitude for my right hand man, a man who greatly contributes to the unification of our two political parties. Without him, I'm not quite sure that I would be standing here as your Governor, and my friend, Tripp Cobb.

Now to you --- my fellow citizens:

I pledge to uphold the standards set by the citizens of Boys' State as well as its history. I look into next year with tremendous anticipation and excitement, not knowing what the future holds, but I assure you I promise to carry myself in a manner the Boys' State Program can be proud of.

I also want to make a short mention of the unfortunate incident in the Federalist Party with regard to the Governor's race. I know it was very upsetting to both candidates and I want to pledge to both "The juggler" and "Harry" Cox that I will advocate and initiate a checks and balances system to the Legislature to prevent this from happening in the future.

In searching for words to sum up my feelings that best exemplify my thoughts at this time, I would like to read a quote I once heard:

"Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, I may not lead Walk beside me ... Be my friend."

Thank you and God bless.

CONGRATULATIONS, COY

FAREWELL ADDRESS
GOVERNOR STEPHEN REDD
JUNE 14, 1989

Governor Elect, Flowers, Mr. Stine, Staff Members, Distinguished Guests, and my fellow citizens of Mountaineer Boys' State. It is indeed a pleasure to stand here before you today as the 51st Governor of Mountaineer Boys' State. My only regret is that I'm saying good-bye. For most of you, our paths may never cross again, so I bid you a fond farewell. The few that I will be seeing will be here each summer because Stephen Redd plans to be a part of Mountaineer Boys' State Program until the day he dies. This is by far the best organization I've ever been associated with.

I would like to recognize two people today, without whose poise and expertise I would not be standing here today as Governor. Sharing with me their knowledge, wisdom, and insurmountable friendship: Mark Zachweija and Brent Walker. Thank you.

Now I want to tell you what Boys' State is all about to me. Each year, approximately 400 individuals arrive here at Boys' State. Each and everyone is unique. As the week progresses, this raw group of potentials gradually become one - a team. A group working for the same goal - to be better Americans. But more importantly, better West Virginians. Trust, courage, and unyielding dedication are a must for you to exemplify the purpose of Boys' State. I want to tell you about a young man I met, and will never forget, who really showed me what Boys' State should mean. His name is Bill Murphy, a Boys' Stater from Massachusetts who attended Boys' Nation with me.

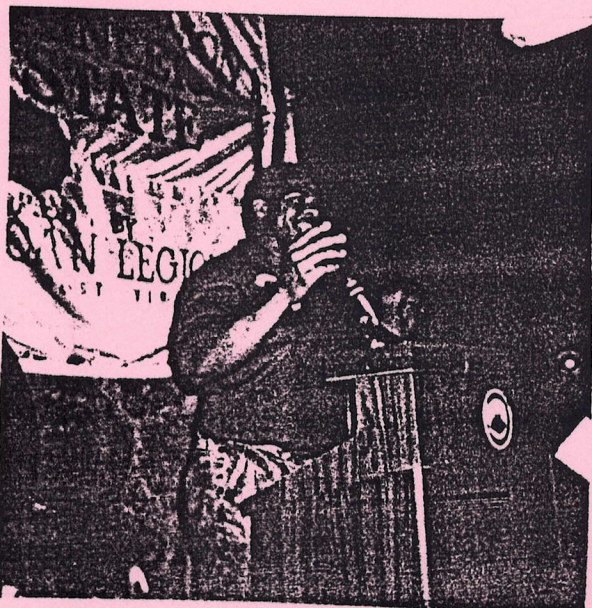

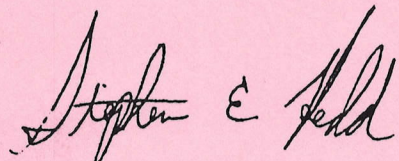

One evening, as usual, we were in Senate Committee meetings. I was sitting beside a Senator from Massachusetts discussing a particular bill on the floor of the committee, and there was a knock at the door. Mr. Marty Justice came to the door and said, "Can I speak to Bill Murphy", the senator I was speaking to. But before he had a chance to get up, Bill's father appeared from behind the door. Bill looked straight into my eyes and said, "Oh, my God, I think my mother died." His father came over and embraced him. I was speechless, stunned, and crushed all in the same moment.

We later found out that Bill's mother had been ill for some time, but she insisted Bill attend Boys' Nation. Evidently, she realized how important his respective Boys' State was to Bill.

I'll never in my lifetime forget the look in Bill's eyes when he looked at me. There is not a day that goes by I do not think of it. To me, Bill displayed the courage, honor, and love to Boys' State that could never be beaten.

In conclusion, I would like to challenge each and everyone of you to strive for this image. Now, as I step down from this Executive position I wish each of you the best of luck and to Governor Elect Flowers, stand tall and be proud.

Thank you all and God Bless!

Stephen "Big" Redd, the 51st Governor of MBS has fulfilled his duties exceptionally well while here at Jackson's Mill. Stephen was a Nationalist and lived in Monongalia Cottage during his week at Boy's State. He lives at Philippi, West Virginia.

Look for Stephen on the Mountaineer football team in the fall of 1989.

Congratulations to you, Stephen. We hope that all your dreams and aspirations come true.

FOLLOW THE CLUES

BY JULES ROITH

Missing letters in each word below form a synonym for the word that follows. The object of the puzzle is to follow the trail of clues down the first column, and back upward, returning to the point at which you started. For example, the first word (at the top of the puzzle) should be INTELLIGENCE. The letters that go in the empty spaces—TELL—are a synonym of the next answer. EXPLAIN its missing letters—PLAIN—spell a synonym of the next answer, and so on. The missing letters in the last answer (a synonym of your native INTELLIGENCE) complete the circuit.

If you get stuck, jump ahead and try working backward. For example, the fifth answer, PET UNIFORM, is a synonym of the missing letters in the previous word. A slippery one, at that.

SOLITAIRE HANGMAN*

BY R. WAYNE SCHMITTBERGER

As in the two-player version of Hangman, the object of this solitaire challenge is to guess the identity of a word before being "hanged."

To begin, choose any letter of the alphabet you think might be in word 1. Suppose you pick E. Go to the Letter Chart on the right and find the number listed in row E of column I (because you are working on word 1). The number is 19; you now look in box 19 in the Position Chart below and find the number 5. This means the letter E occurs in the fifth position (and nowhere else) in word 1. If a letter occurs more than once in a word, the Position Chart will show all its locations.

If you find from the Position Chart that a letter appears in position 0, then that letter does not appear in the word. As a penalty for an incorrect guess, you must draw part of a stick figure below the scaffold beside the word blanks. On your first incorrect guess, draw the head; on the second, the body, and on the next four, the arms and legs. If you complete the figure before identifying the word, you are "hanged."
